

An invitation from GL Hearn and the PMA to our business rates webinar

Thursday 14 May 2020 | 12:30 - 13:30

Join us for a PMA accredited webinar where we will be discussing the impact of Coronavirus (COVID-19) on business rates and looking ahead to the 2021 revaluation.

With much uncertainty and disruption as a result of the current COVID-19 pandemic, we explore what this means for the retail sector, and on business rates specifically in this one-hour webinar.

Our speakers include Richard Williamson, National Head of Rating at GL Hearn, and Blake Penfold, also from the GL Hearn Business Rates team. Following their presentation there will be a Q&A session.

They will be covering:

- The impact of COVID-19 on business rates, and how you can mitigate risk
- 2020 business rates update
- 2021 revaluation
- Case law update
