LionHeart
Supporting RICS professionals and their families

Who we are

LionHeart is the independent charity for RICS professionals, past and present, and their families.

Who we are

We rely solely on generous donations from RICS professionals and don't receive any funding from RICS.

Two dark purple silhouettes of hands are positioned on the left side of the slide. The top hand is reaching downwards, and the bottom hand is reaching upwards, with their fingers nearly touching.

What we do:

We offer personal, flexible support for all RICS professionals and their families to help them overcome life's unexpected challenges.
